

Chris Kallis Solicitors and Hannahs

Sharing a Vision to Challenge Perceptions

At Hannahs our mission is to make disability incidental, an ethos shared by the team at Chris Kallis Solicitors. Through their work in the personal injury sector, they have seen how hard some people have to fight to ensure their basic needs and rights are met. Their empathy with our cause has fostered a special relationship with Hannahs that has seen the Chris Kallis team go that extra mile to help Hannahs raise funds, spread the word and make a real difference.

- Hannahs were fortunate enough to receive a four-figure donation from Chris Kallis Solicitors which enabled us to buy adapted outdoor pursuits equipment for our young people at Hannahs, Seale-Hayne.
- Chris Kallis Solicitors continue to support our annual fundraising ball through buying tickets, donating auction prizes and digging deep to donate on the evening itself.

- The team at Chris Kallis asked all the delegates at their medico-legal conference to make a donation to Hannahs in lieu of charging for the event. They also invited our CEO, Bronwen Hewitt, to give a presentation about our work.
- The Chris Kallis team showed true dedication when their Paralegal took to the skies and skydived for Hannahs to raise vital funds.
- As a local Plymouth firm, Chris Kallis Solicitors continues to find new and engaging ways of involving their team and customers with the work of Hannahs and for that we are so grateful. It makes a huge difference!

“Chris Kallis Solicitors are a company that have true community spirit. Their desire to help and to make a difference is unwavering and their commitment to our cause is greatly appreciated by all at Hannahs. They have a real belief in our charity and for us that is motivating and affirming. It is a pleasure to work with the team, long may it continue!”

Emily Severn – Fundraising Manager - Hannahs

“This place has changed my life”. Those were the first things that Pauline said to me as I sat down opposite her to admire the ceramic pot she had been making for her daughter-in-law. It soon dawned on me that, during a previous visit to Hannahs, I had seen and been very impressed with one of Pauline’s portraits, so it was a real pleasure to meet the artist herself. As she delicately rolled the clay to decorate her pot, Pauline revealed that she was 91(!) and virtually blind. Yet there was no contradiction that in front of her was a perfectly crafted clay pot that she handled seamlessly.

“Only at Hannahs” I thought to myself. And without exception, on every visit to Seale-Hayne there is always something that amazes and inspires me. It’s in the sense of community, it’s in the ability to enable and to unlock potential in people who may otherwise be overlooked in society.

Hannahs is a special charity and one that we at Chris Kallis Solicitors are immensely proud to support and champion whenever we can. And Seale-Hayne really is one of those unique places that has the power to change lives.

Abe Kallis, Chris Kallis Solicitors
